To Sir T. M.

SIR,

ACcording to your Requeſt, I ſend you Inclos'd the Proceedings of the Commiſſioners appointed by the Lords of His Majeſtys moſt Honourable Privy Councill, for enquiring into the Witches and Witchcrafts in the Shiriffdome of Renfrew, of which I have had Opportunity of knowing more than many others, as having been with the Commiſſioners on the Tryalls; And ſhall add nothing here, ſave what paſſed at the firſt Dyet of the Tryall, which was at Paiſlaw, where were Met of the Commiſſioners, my Lord Blantyre, my Lord Halcraig, Sir John Maxwell of Polock, Mr. Francis Montgomery, Blackhall, Duchall, with ſeveral others, to the Number of Eleven. There was Deputed in the room of the King's Advocate, Three Advocates, viz. Mr. John Menzies, Mr. Grant and Mr. Stuart. The Panalls being 21 in number, were frequently call'd to ſee if they could be brought to Confeſſion; They were Confronted with Bargarens Daughter, and the three little Confeſſors, Elizabeth Anderſon, and the two Lindſays. But they ſtill deny'd all: which put the Court to Cull out 7 of them, againſt whom Threatnings, and ſome Malifice following could be proven. Theſe were Margaret Lang, in Cartinpan, a Woman Famous for Religion, ever ſince the 60 year of God, and really a Perſon of extraordinary Gravity and Wiſdom; I know not whether to call it Natural or Diabolical; but I have never heard a Woman ſpeak ſo Gravely, Pertinently, and Religiouſly both to the Miniſters and Judges then ſhe did. The other were Katharine Campbell, Agnes Naſmith, John and James Lindſays, Agnes Foſtur, and Margaret Fulton: This Kate Cambell is a young Well-favour'd Laſs, 20 years of Age; but the reſt moſt part Old, both Men and Women.

The Commiſſioners, after their firſt Aſſay to have them confeſs, before they brought them to a Formal Tryal, would have them Try'd by Pricking, which really to me ſeems ſtrange, for there was not any of them, ſave Margaret Fulton, but Marks were found on them, which were altogether Incenſible, That a Needle of 3 Inches length was frequently put in without their Knowledge, nor would any blood come from theſe places, and tho many, eſpecially Doctors, ridicul'd theſe as Storys, yet after we cal'd Dr. Bisbin and Baird, and let them ſee a Needle of a great length put into the top of one of the Vertibræ of the Back, and one into Margaret Lang, a handbreadth beneath her Ribbs in the Region of the Lower Belly, they both thought it wonderful, being in a place where, in another Woman, the Needle could not but peirce the Gutts: All the other 14 were alſo prickt and marks found in moſt of them. But I was moſt concern'd for Martha Semple Daughter to Margaret Lang, who was moſt exactly ſearch'd twice, yet no mark found; tho the pricker miſt not to ſearch the very Soles of her Feet and other more Secret Places, for when there was any difficulty to find the mark they did quite uncloath them, but then it was in a Room, and not publickly, before one or two of the Juſtices, a Miniſter, one of the Advocatrs and the Clark, my Lord Halcraig and I were only preſent with Martha; but realy ſhe is as well Favourd and Gentile a Laſs as you'l look on, and about 17 or 18 years of Age, I took up Mr. Wylie to her to ſee if he could bring her to any Confeſſion, he ſpoke long to her but ſhe deny'd all notwithſtanding of what you ſee in the Encloaſed paper, but ſhe was the only perſon amongſt them all that ever I ſaw Weep.

They were at laſt on the 15*th.* of April to have been brought to their Tryall, after 3 or 4 days trifling with them by pricking, and to bring ſome of them to Confeſſiou, but juſt as the Aſſize was conſtitute they mov'd to have a little more time to provide themſelves Advocates, which the Juſtices yeilded to, and adjourn'd to the 2*d. Tueſday* of May, and in this Interval the two Brothers did Confeſs, and upon Examination ſaid the ſame things that the two Lindſays and Anderſon had declared, as you have it in the within Paper. Another Man alſo confeſs'd, But the Devil Strangled him in Priſon, for he was found ſitting in a Chair with a Cord about his Neck but ſlack and ty'd to no thing. After the Adjournment the Judges met again, and having Sufficient Evidence of ſeveral Malleſices done by each of the Seaven above-named, with the Teſtimonys of the five Confeſſing Witches, all concuring in the ſame Acts, Sentenc'd them to be burn'd the 10*th.* of June, which was accordingly Executed. The other 14 being Reſpited till the Kings Advocates Pleaſure, among whom is one Moriſon Wife to Francis Duncan in Greenock call'd in the Paper the Devils Gentlewife Antiochia, on whom many marks are found; of which you'l receive further Information by the Incloas'd to which I referr you, and am, Sir,

Your muchoblig'd Humble Servant,

NARATIVE

Of the RECOGNITION

Taken by the Commiſſioners, Appointed by the Lords of His Majeſties Privy-Council, for Enquiring into the Witchcrafts, and Witches, in the Shirrifdom of Renfrew; with Relation to the Afflicted Caſe of Chriſtian Shaw, Daughter to the Laird of Bargarren.

At the Place of Bargarren,
Feb. 5. 1697.

Preſent, the Lord Blantyre, &c.

THE ſaid Chriſtian Shaw, being Confronted with one James Lindſay (whom Elizabeth Anderſon, one of the Confeſſing Witches Under-written Declared, Was one of the ſaid Chriſtians Troublers in her Fits) Did, upon Touching the ſaid James, take a very Violent Fit, Leaping, Starting and Staring, with ſuch a Stiffning of all her Joynts, that it was hard for the Aſſiſtants to keep her from Falling, and, at laſt, fell, as quite Dead, and Senſeleſs, for ſome time; and, after Recovery, being Confronted with one Catherine Campbell, who being once Servant to her Father, for a Miſ-repreſentation of her to her Miſtreſs, Curſt her; and is the Aledg'd Inſtrument of all the ſaid Chriſtian her Trouble. The ſaid Katherine being by the ſaid Commiſſioners Interrogate on ſeveral Points, in the Hearing of the ſaid Chriſtian, ſhe Deny'd all, and particularly her Acceſſion to the ſaid Chriſtian her Trouble, or the Riſe thereof. But the Child ſtill Charging her, Conjured her to tell the Commiſſioners, Why ſhe would never Pray, That God would deliver her from that Ill, and Reſtore her well again. Katherine did not diſown her Refuſal, but ſhifted about for frivolous Excuſes which the Commiſſioners bearing home on her, as a Great Argument of her Guilt; and finding ſhe could hardly evade the Force of it, Katherine offers to run at the Child (they being then at ſome diſtance from one another) and the Child did all ſhe could to ſhun her Touch. Katherine Complain'd, ſaying, Now I would Pray for her, but ſhe will not let me. But the Child being forc'd to ſuffer her Touch by the By-ſtanders, tho moſt Unwillingly, and with great Fear, ſhe immediately after fell down, in a moſt Violent Fit, as before, on James Lindſay's Touch: But thereupon Katherines Tongue was looſed, and ſhe ſaid, The Lord Bleſs her, The Lord Deliver her; which nothing could Oblige her to do before: And the Child her ſelf declared, after that Fit, and Katherines Prayer, ſhe now found her ſelf free of all Fear to Touch the ſaid Katherine, or any other of her Tormentors.

The Commiſſioners were then Earneſt with Katherine, to tell why ſhe would, or could not Pray before ſhe Touch'd the Child? But, to this, ſhe could give no Satisfactory Anſwer.

Afterwards the Commiſſioners call'd a Young Damſel, Nam'd Elizabeth Anderſon, whom they found a very Uſeful Perſon in the ſaid Enquiry, as being many times admitted by her

Father

Father, and other Friends, to their Meetings with the Devil, as her Confeſſion hereto Subjoyned does Evidence, to which you are Referr'd. As alſo the Commiſſioners having Examin'd Chriſtian Shaw, about the Perſons Repreſented to her as her Tormentors in thoſe Fits; and finding her Teſtimony Confirmed by Elizabeth Anderſon her Confeſſion, with relation to many of the Perſons Accuſed by Chriſtian. The Commiſſioners, on that Evidence, Ordered them all to Priſon, (viz.) Alexander Anderſon, Father to the ſaid Elizabeth, Agnes Naſmith, John Lindſay in Barrcloch, John Lindſay in Formachin, James Lindſay his Brother, Agnes Foſter, Margaret Fulton, and the ſaid Katherine Campbell, where they are to lie till farther Orders. But the ſaid Chriſtian Shaw knows and remembers another Perſon, whom ſhe declares ſhe has not the Power to Name: And ſhe has many times attempted it, but is ſtill ſeized with Fits when ſhe Aſſays to Expreſs it; She came, at laſt, to ſay, for her firſt Name, Margaret, or Pincht Margaret (a Name given her by the Devil, from a Pincht Croſs-Cloath, ordinarily worn on her Brow) But cannot expreſs her Patronimick, or Surname. The Commiſſioners were ſo concern'd at this, that they urged her to Write it, which being loth to try for fear of Torture, ſhe nevertheleſs eſſayed it; And beginning to Write other Names, ſhe was deſir'd to try that too, but could Write no more ſave Margaret, and the Letter L. of her Sirname, being preſently taken with a moſt Violent Fit, the Pen falling out of her hand, and ſhe falling Dead, as above, with Groans, heavier and ſorer then ordinary. Within a while the Commiſſioners having caus'd her to take a little of a Julip, after her Recovery, ſome Miniſters ſtanding by, Preſented her with a Bible, deſiring her to Read a Paſſage in it, which they pointed to her; but no ſooner had ſhe caſt her eyes on the Book, but inſtead of Reading, ſhe fell to Sing a very Melodious Tune, ſuch as is uſed in Opera's; and, within a little while after fell in her Fits again, and even then the Muſick ceas'd not, tho ſhe appear'd as one dead, with her Mouth open, but neither her Lips nor Tongue ſtirring, She remain'd long in the Fit, till one of the Commiſſioners, desir'd the Book might be Clos'd; which done, she Immediately came to her Self; and being Askt what she meant by Singing, when she was desir'd to Read, she was not sensible she had Sung, and declar'd she did not remember it.

Bargarren-Place. Febr. 5. 1697.

Elizabeth Anderson, Daughter to Alexander Anderson; Aged 17 years, or thereby, Declared that about 20 days ago, she was Invited by her Father, to go along with him to Bargarrin's Yeard, about Twelve a Clock in the Day, who went both together; and having come there, they met with ane Black Man, who had ane Bonnet on his Head, and a Band about his Neck, whom her Father, and Agnes Nasmith, then present, told her, He was the Devil And that there was in Company with that Black Man, whom she thought was the Devil, the Persons following; viz. the said Alexander Anderson her Father, Agnes Nasmith in Park of Erskin, John Lindsay in Formaken, call'd, The Bishop, James Lindsay his Brother, Margaret Fulton, Spouse to Robert Wallace in Kilpatrick, and Sister to the Grandmother of the said Elizabeth, who Dyed in Paisley Tolbooth, Accused of Witchcraft above half ane Year since, or thereby. And that their Discourse was at that time concerning Christian Shaw, Daughter to the Laird of Bargarren, who was then not well, and whose Life they all promis'd to take away by Stopping of her Breath; and that she saw the Devil several times before in her Fathers House, in Company with her Father, and several others. And that the Devil, with the Company foresaid Danc'd all in the said Yeard the time foresaid. And that her Father Discharged her to tell any thing she saw, or else she would be Torn in in pieces; And that ſhe was more Affraied of the forſaid Perſons, then ſhe was of the Devil. And being Examin'd whether or no any Perſon in the Company foreſaid Deſired her to Ingage in the Devil's Service? She declared, That both the Devil and her Father Invited her ſeveral times to the Devil's Service, Promiſing to Reward her for her paines But that ſhe altogether refus'd to Ingage therein: And that notwithſtanding thereof, ſhe went along to the foreſaid Yeard, to the ſaid Meeting with her Father; Where ſhe heard the Devil ſay, That no body would ſee them: At which the forſaids Perſons then preſent did Laugh. And being asked, If ſhe was Affraid when ſhe ſaw the Devil in the Yeard? She Declared, She was Fear'd not, becauſe ſhe had ſeen him ſeveral times before.

Elizabeth Anderſons Additional Confeſſion, who Compear'd, and being Examin'd upon the Point of Witchcraft, Declared the Particulars following.

Renfrew, Feb. 18. 97.

THat about Seven years ſince or thereabouts, the ſaid Elizabeth Anderſon was with the Deceas'd Jean Fulton, her Grandmother; and playing about the door of the Houſe ſhe ſaw ane Black grim Man go into the Houſe to her Grandmother; who abode with her a conſiderable ſpace, talking with her; and afterward ſhe came to the door, and deſired the ſaid Elizabeth Anderſon to come in; and upon her incoming, deſired her to take the Gentleman (as ſhe named him) by the

the Hand, and ſhe would give her ane Bony Black new Coat, which accordingly ſhe did; which ſeemed to her very cold: whereupon ſhe was affraid, and immediatly he vaniſhed and went away. About a Month after her Grandmother and ſhe were both in the Houſe together, when the aforeſaid Gentleman appeared to them, (which the ſaid Elizabeth then ſuſpected to be the Devil) and he and her Grandmother fell a talking together, by rounding in others Ears, but underſtood not what they ſaid; and afterward her Grandmother deſired her to take the Gentleman by the hand, but ſhe refuſing, ſaying, It was the Devil, which her Grandmother denying, ſaid, It was a Gentleman a Friend of hers; and ſhe ſtill inſiſting and threatning her if ſhe would not take him by the hand, ſhe would get none of her Cloaths, but the ſaid Elizabeth Anderſon would not be perſwaded to do it, but ſaved her ſelf from him, ſaying, the Lord be between me and him, whereupon her Grandmother ſaid, ſhe need not fear for it was no ill thing, and upon that the Devil went away in a Flight, ſhe knew not how; and declares, for a long time after, ſhe was no more troubled with the ſaid Gentleman. Till one time her Father Alexander Anderſon deſired her to go with him through the Country to ſeek their Meat; to which ſhe replyed, ſhe need not go ſeek her Meat, ſeeing ſhe might have Work: But her Father preſſing her, ſhe went with him, where he took her to ane Muir in Kilmacolme, where were gathered together, before they came, Agnes Naſmith, Margaret Fulton, John Lindſay, called Biſhop, James Lindſay, called Curat, ane Heighland Body, Katherine Campbel, ane Gentlewife called by them Antiochia, Thomas Woodrous's Wife in Carſlup, Margaret Lang in Cartinpan, and her Daughter Martha Semple, John Read Smith, John Stuart and his Wife, Annable Read, Margaret Sherer, Margaret Rodger in Park, Janet Rodger her Siſter, Robert Wallace in Kilpatrick, Allaſon there, Thomas Birkinyers Wife in Stamne-butts, and ſeveral others whom ſhe does not know or remember, when the aforeſaid Gentleman who appeared to her formerly, came to the ſaid Elizabeth Anderſon, bidding her Renounce her Baptiſm, promiſing her if ſhe would conſent thereto, ſhe ſhould be better then ſhe was then, and ſhe would get better Meat and better Cloaths, and ſhe would not need to beg. But (as ſhe declared) ſhe would not Conſent to him; And he enquired of her, What brought her thither? then ſhe replied, That ſhe came with her Father. Whereupon the Devil and her Father went together, and talked to one another; but ſhe knew not whereabout: And declares that the cauſe of her meeting at that time (as ſhe ſaid) was about the forming of a Picture, of Mr. William Flemings Miniſter at Innerkeppe his Child, who at that time effected the ſame; the Main Actors being, her Father, Agnes Naſmith, Margaret Fulton, Iſabel Cochran, and ſome others, who at that time put in Pins both ſmall and great; but their Maſter told them they behoved to have ſome other thing before it could take Effect. As alſo ſhe Confeſſes, ſhe was preſent at ane Meeting with that Crew, above the Town of Kilpatrick, where were preſent her Father, Mother, and Siſter, Margaret Lang and her Daughter, Margaret Fulton, Agnes Naſmith, Margaret Rodger and her Siſter Janet, Margaret Sherer, Robert Wallace in Kilpatrick, with the foreſaid Gentleman, whom they called their Lord; where they formed ane Picture of Mr. John Ritchie Miniſter of Kilpatrick his Child, and they all Stabed Pins in the ſame, both great and ſmall; and heard the ſaid Margaret Rodger ſay, ſtay a little till I ſtop ane Pin in the Heart of it, which accordingly ſhe did. And declares, ſhe went with her Father to the Ferrie-Boat of Erskin, where he took her on his Back over the Water to Kilpatrick in a Flight. Farther Confeſſes, To have been preſent at the Drowning of Brighouſe, and the Ferrier of Erskin, where was preſent in the Boat, the Devil, her Father and Mother, William Miller at Formakin, the Ferriers Mother-in-Law, Margaret Fulton, and ſome others; and there were on Erskin ſide of the Water John Lindſay the Biſhop, James Lindſay, the Curat, Margaret Cochran, Tarbet, Jennet Waugh, Margaret Shearer, Margaret Lang, and her Daughter, John Stwart, and his Wife, the Highland Body, Catherin Campbel, and ſeveral others, with her Self; and heard them ſay, That they would have ſaved one of the Horſe, but they could not get it done, unleſs they had ſaved alſo one of the Men which were Drounded, and which ſhe believes was John Glen, had not his Mother-in-Law prevented it. Moreover ſhe declares, ſhe was preſent at the putting down of a Child of William Montgomries in Bargarrans Land, where were preſent Margaret Fulton in Kilpatrik, Agnes Naſmith, her Father Mother and Siſter, John and James Lindſays, Biſhop and Curat, Margaret Lang, in Cartinpan, Janet Waugh, Margaret Sherer, Thomas Woodrouſe's Wife in Carsſlup, Thomas Lindſay, James Lindſay his Brother, John Reid Smith, and ſeveral others whom ſhe does not know or remember, with the Black Man whom they called their Lord, about two a Clock in the Morning, where they Strangled a Child with a Sea Napkin: The Main Actors, being Agnes Naſmith and Margaret Fulton, who opened the Door of the Houſe, and after they were entred, went to the Fire and lighted ane Candle, which was blacker nor your Candles uſually are, ſomewhat blewiſh; and none in the Houſe ever ſtir'd or wakened, and they ſtayed all in the Houſe upwards of ane Hour; And declares, that ſhe heard Agnes Naſmith ſay, What if the People of the Houſe awake? And farder declares, That ſeveral of them were feard, That the ſaid Elizabeth Anderſon ſhould Confeſs and tell of them, in regard ſhe had done it formerly. Feb. 18. 97.

James Lindſay being examined Confeſſes as follows, (Aged 14 years, or thereby,) That one day he met with the Deceas'd Jean Fulton his Grandmother at her Houſe in Inchannen, wher ſhe took from him a little Round Cap and a Plack, But being loath to part with the ſame, required them from her again; which ſhe refuſing, he cal'd her an old Witch and run away; upon which ſhe follow'd him and cry'd, that ſhe would meet him another time with an Ill turn: about 8 days

8 days therafter, as he was begging thorough the Country near to the Town of Inchannen, he met again with his Grandmother at the Back of the yard of that Houſe at the head of the Cauſey, where there appear'd to him ane Black Grim Man with black Cloaths, ane black Hat, and blew Band; his Grandmother deſiring him to take the Gentleman by the Hand, (as ſhe term'd him) who accordingly did as he was deſired, whoſe hand ſeem'd to the ſaid James to be exceeding cold, and gript him very ſtraitly; whereupon the ſaid Gentleman enquir'd at him, If he would ſerve him, and he would give him a Bonny black Coat and a black Hat, and ſeveral other things? to which he reply'd, yes I'le do't; and continuing there a litle time they parted, when the ſaid Gentleman (which he knew thereafter to be the Devil) and his Grandmother went away together from him, but he knows not how. This the ſaid James Lindſay declares was the firſt time that ever he ſaw the Devil, or engaged with him; and thereafter confeſſes he was frequently at Meetings with him and others, and particularly the Meetings after ſpecify'd, beſides many others: Viz. That about 5 Weeks before Jennet Ker was Apprehended he went with her to a Muir in Kilmalcolme Pariſh upon a Hill to a Meeting there about 4 a Clock in the afternoon, where were preſent whom he knew (beſides ſeveral others whom he does not know or remember:) The ſaid Jennet Ker, Jennet Woodrow, Margaret Alexander, Margaret Cockran, Tarbett, Alexander Anderſon, and his Wife; John Lindſey Biſhop, Agnes Neſmith, John Lindſay in Barclough, Jennett Waugh, Margaret Sheirer, William Miller in Formaken, Margaret Lang in Carterpan, Martha Semple her Daughter; *Kat. when he ſhould come over the Ferry of Erskin, (the foreſaid Jennet Ker being the main Inſtigator) where he heard their Lord ſay, That if they could not get him out by the the Hairs of the Head, they would ſink the Boat and all therein, and Jennet Woodrow reply'd, That if they could get Brighouſe Drown'd alone they would be content, John Glenn the Farrier were ſav'd, but Mckillops Mother-in-Law to the ſaid Farrier (who was alſo preſent) ſaid in regard he had put her out of the Houſe a little while before the Meeting, ſhe ſhould have him Drown'd alſo. And likewiſe Confeſſes, That at the Comitting of the ſaid Fact, the heal forenam'd perſons were preſent with ſeveral others, except the ſaid Jennet Woodrow and Jennet Ker, who were then at that time in Priſon; and that the Devil was at the Head of the Boat, and Alexander Anderſon, William Miller, the Farriers Mother-in-Law, and John Steward, and his Wife were in the middle of the Boat, and the reſt of the Crew abovenam'd with himſelf and ſeveral others upon Erskin ſide of the Water.

As alſo Confeſſes, he was preſent at the putting down of a Child of Mathew Parks in Parkland, with the Perſons abovenam'd, and ſeveral others, as Thomas Lindſay his Brother, Elizabeth Anderſon, Daughter to Alexander Anderſon, where was preſent with them ane Black-haird Man, bare-headed, in ane black Coat and a long blew Cravat, which was don late at Night about 12, when the whole Family were aſleep except ane Servant-Laſs, who waited on the Child, who at this time went to the Door a little, and in the Interim before ſhe return'd they put a Cord about the Childs Neck and Strangled it; the main Actors of the Fact being Margaret Fulton, and Agnes Neſmith, and when the Laſs came in again to the place where the Child was, they heard her cry theſe words, Mathew, O Mathew! Mathew! The Bairn is Dead; whereupon they all went away.

Note, That the foreſaid Elixabeth Anderſon another Confeſſant, agrees in her Confeſſion to this Article, that the bairn

Bairn was in the Cradle when the Fact was Comitted, and that when they had don they took the Cord with them. Likeas Confesses, he was present at the Strangling of a Child of VVilliam Montgomerys in Bargarrins-land, with Martha Lang in Cartanpan, Martha Semple her Daughter, Thomas Lindsay his Brother, Margaret Rodger, Alexander Anderson, and his Wife and two Daughters, Jane and the said Elizabeth Anderson, John Lindsay Bishop, James Lindsay Curate, and Patrick Lindsay his Son; Agnes Nesmith, Jennet Lindsay in Barloch, Jennet VVaugh, Margaret Shearer, Crooked VVilliam Millar, *Kath. THE Copy of a Letter SENT,

From Bargarrens Lady to him, being then at Ranfren, dated Febr. 18. 1697.

My Dear,

I Thought it fit to give you ane Account of Chriſtians Condition, this day about two a Clock in the Afternoon ſhe ſaid ſhe ſaw the Devil in likneſs of a Man, ſhe ſeemed to be ſomewhat feared, and I deſired her to ſay The Lord Rebuke thee Satan, but the uſe of her Tongue was taken from her, yet recovering it in a ſhort ſpace ſhe aſayed to ſpeak, but was preſently ſeiſed with a Fit, and when that was over ſhe went about the Room deaf and blind as you your ſelf have ſeen her before, but ſtill ſpeaking, as to a Bumbee, ſaid, With the Lords Strength thou ſhalt not put Straw nor Stiks into my Mouth, houlding her hand faſt on her Mouth all the while, then walking a litle faſter ſhe cryed out, the Bumbee is Stinging me, and ſitting down looked on her Leg where was the Impreſſion, very deep, of finger Nails. The Devil appeared to her again in the Bed like a Gentleman, ſhe ſtanding at the Bed-ſide reaſoned with him after this maner; Thou thinks to make me a VVitch but through God's Strength thou ſhalt never be the better; I charge thee in the Name of God to be gon and thy Papers too, for I will have non of them, I will not fear thy ill, ſtand here ſee if thou dare come one ſtep nearer me: I think thou art feareder for me then I for thee; then turning ſhe went up and down the Room as before, and again was bitten with Teeth in the hands very deep, and Impreſſed with Nails of Fingers more then twenty four times, which made her cry aloud every time ſhe received them, and ſhewing the place where ſhe was hurt by getting her hand upon it; but we neither ſaw nor heard any thing about her. She continued in this Fit from two a Clock till paſt five at night, ſhe ſaid in the Fit Margaret Lang had given orders to Torment her, ſo by the Laſs you will get a fuller account; till meeting; I remain
